ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE. - Advices from Richmond say the Anti-Saloon League of Virginia has a plan on foot by which its influence will be felt in politics to a con-siderable extent. During the next sec-sion of the legislature they will keep a record as to how the members stand upon e temperance ques on, the record to published as a "Book of Remembrance." The league will work to secure the defeat of such members who have the deleat of such members who have not given their support to temperance measures. The league, the membership of which is being constantly increased, thinks that it will be able to exert a powerful influence on thousands of voters in the State, but it will not ally itself with any party. It will give its support to those members who have cast the r votes in the general assembly in the interest of temperance measures without regard to their party affiliations. Judge W. H. Mann, of Nottoway Courthouse, is a prominent member of the league. He will lead a great fight for the adoption of the "Mann bill," and is is upon this measure that the test will be made.

BIBLE AGENT IN JAIL .- A. J. Glas gow, the Bible agent who was arrested in Millersville, Lancaster county, Pa., as he was leaving the Methodist church, in that town, last Sunday, is now fixed with eight additional charges of horse stealing. Glasgow has been distributing Bibles in Lancaster county for 23 years. The confidence in the man was such that when he was taken to the prison at Lancaster the prison keeper hesitated to re-ceive him because of his connections with the church and his standing in the community. Prominent people came for ward unsolicited to furnish bail, but later withdrew their offers. Glasgow was committed on the eight additional charges of horse stealing and was given a hearing yesterday afternoon at Lancaster. He has resided in Millersville for several years and has a wife and three children. He was a former resident of Richmond, Va.

A Certain Cure for Dysentery and

Some years ago I was one of a party that intended making a long bicycle trip," says F. L. Taylor, of New Al-bany, Bradford county, Pa. "I was taken suddenly with diarrhoca, and taken suddenly with diarrhoea, and was about to give up the trip, when editor Ward, of the Laceyville Messenger, suggested that I take a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I purchased a bottle and took two doses, one before starting and one one the route. I made the trip successfully, and never telt any ill effect. Again last summer I was almost completely run and never less almost completely run down with an attack of dysentery. I handle a bottle of this same remedy, tht a bottle of this same rem and this time one dose cured me." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

"I was so troubled with bleediag piles that I lost much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, Ill. "Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. For sale by E.
